

Koala News

Week of January 4th

Happy New Year and Welcome Back after the holiday break. It was so wonderful to see all of the children come in happy and ready to play. They all had stories to share and were eager to play with their friends.

This week our art project was a community effort. We painted with straws and added glitter to make it look like fireworks. This became our “Happy New Year” banner on the bulletin board. The Koalas also enjoyed playing and sculpting with the kinetic sand. It’s always a big hit!!!!

At group time we have been reading the book, Everything by Emma Dodd. It’s about a big koala who helps a little koala. This sparked good conversation and thoughts about who the big koala could be. Some of the ideas offered by the children included a mom, sister, teacher, and friend.

Teacher Pat was a welcome visitor this week. We sang about a pony visiting different places and a few of the children wanted the pony to take us to their house! We also sang a song about having a “happy feeling” in our feet and different parts of our bodies. It's wonderful to see how much the children enjoy these music sessions with Teacher Pat.

ADDED NOTES: Please remember to check backpacks for wet/soiled masks.
